VERY SHORT FILM FESTIVAL

This is no ordinary film festival. One of the positives of this very strange pandemic era has been that many of us have found the time, and the urge, to explore our hitherto unknown or overlooked creative sides. This national competition sprung out of the world we're currently living in, encouraging all sorts of stories to be told and shared – particularly from those people who are not usually heard.

"What an enormous pleasure it has been watching all the very short films submitted for the festival," says actor and judge Marta Dusseldorp. "Smart, engaging, thoughtful stories - full of intrigue, heart and connection and celebrating this complex life. Looking forward to gathering at Spring Bay Mill for this Very Short Film Festival visual feast."

The winners will be announced at the Premiere Screening Event. Cash prizes will be awarded and mentorships given. Award-winning writer, musician and radio broadcaster Casey Bennetto will MC, and Jay Jarome Trio will provide the music at our after party. Jarome, an up-and-coming Djindubari artist born and raised on Bribie Island, Queensland, is now based in Tasmania. The mentors and judges are award-winning actor Marta Dusseldorp, who has worked extensively in theatre, film and television; artist Rocco Fazzari, well-known for his cartoons and illustrations in the Fairfax press; writer and editor Leta Keens; and Leah Purcell, one of Australia's most eminent cultural figures.

The shortlist for the Open and Junior Categories are (in no particular order):

Open Category (22 years and over)

Fenella Edwards & Brendan Kays (Tas) Claire
Ainsley Halbmeijer (Vic) The Hotline
Thomas Herbert (Vic) Complete and Utter Garbage
Matthew Newton and Anna Brozek (Tas) They say I'm a terrorist
Eva Justine Torkkola (Vic) Bound

Junior Category (21 years of age and under)

Olivia Buonopane (Age 20, ACT) Sweet Dreams
Fletcher Kamino (Age 14, Tas) Little Tassie - The Librarian
Flynn Kamino (Age 12, Tas) Little Tassie - The Architect
Chloe Kealy (Age 16, Tas) Chloe's World
Jongmin Lee (Age 17, Qld) BRICKS
Luca Yi (Age 16, NSW) The Waiting Room

COURTHOUSE REPAIRS DELAYED

Repairs and upgrades to the Swansea Courthouse are on temporary hold due to the discovery of a broken water pipe running along the buildings western side. It is not know how long the undetected pipe has been leaking but it is believed well before the courthouse was closed.

New electrical work has also stopped after it was discovered that the overhead cabling was to low to meet new regulations on height restrictions.

The work will continue once TasWater repairs the mains and TasNetwork raises the overhead cables. All reportedly to be started within the next week or so?

The courthouse is also due for a possible NBN/WiFi addition in an effort to modernize the building. The courthouse was bypassed and not 'wired-up' when the NBN initially laid down the internet cables as it was vacant at the time.

LETTERS TO THE EDITORIAL TEAM

A RESPONSE TO FRED WILLIS'S LETTER in last week's edition

The RE Use Shoppe is definitely not what the town was expecting and as stated doesn't have the space to display typical "tip shop" goods eg. Doors, window frames, furniture. However I believe that the Shoppe operates differently to the local OP shop. It sells very few clothes and focuses more on bric a brac and electricals.
On the note of direct competition the local OP shop had no qualms opening directly opposite Vinnies which ultimately led to it's closure. Was that in the spirit of fairness?

Linda Camus, Swansea

GOBCNews team comment…
Maybe a discussion over a cup of tea & scones between the Op-shop & Re-Use shoppe is in order. A bit of horse trading followed by an exchange of goods might be the answer?

THE HUB, NAMELESS & UNINVITING

I paid a visited to the Re-Use shop on Saturday during my regular drive round Swansea to get candid photos for the next edition of the GOBCNews. Something was not right and I realised the Hub was naked, it was uninviting, nameless and alone….. NO SIGNS. The place was unknown due to its namelessness, it is a place of business yet no sign declares its existence.
The Hub has four business', the PCYC gym, a very well utilized place filled with excellent exercise equipment. The Community/Men's shed, an important facility designed to bring people together for mutual support through woodworking. The Re-Use shoppe, a business run by volunteers, as are all the Hub's tenants, to encourage the reuse of pre-loved items. The Community Room a place where groups of like-minded people can gather to teach, learn and encourage community spirit through cooperation.
All very good businesses that need to be encouraged and advertised. So where are the signs, the placenames, the information devices, so important in communicating that information to the public??

PUMPKIN HARVEST at the MILL

On Tuesday 4th May the Triabunna District School visited Spring Bay Mill to help harvest pumpkins.

Spring Bay Mill is all about connecting kids to their local produce and environment, and last week they needed a hand harvesting their pumpkin bounty before their Mother's Day Pumpkin Harvest Party. Luckily, Triabunna District School stepped in!

The children had a great day with Spring Bay Mill's horticulture team identifying different pumpkins, cutting them from their vines, and the most fun bit - guessing and weighing them! Along the way, the kids learned all things pumpkin-related - from their cultural and historical significance to growing, harvesting and using them.

By Madeleine Rojahn
Marketing Officer, Spring Bay Mill

Editorial team comment….. What a great event, a win-win for all involved. Maybe it could become an annual event for the school & the Mill…… ???

REBECCA WHITE STANDS ASIDE FROM LABOR LEADERSHIP

In a media release on Saturday Rebecca White has announced her resignation as Leader of the Opposition and the Tasmanian Labor Party.

Rebecca White, is an outstanding member of the community and has assisted all her constituents admirably over the years and will continue to do so as the member for Lyons.

In the past, as Lyons' representative Rebecca White has assisted community groups in obtaining various grants and other government funds. The disable ramp into the Swansea library is an example, Rebecca helped in getting financial assistance to complete the project.

Rebecca White has fully supported her colleague, Jen Butler, in her efforts to keep all Online Access Centres open and I am sure with their assistance the centres have been placed on a much firmer footing and they are likely to continue well into the future. It is hoped Rebecca White MP continues to serve the people of Lyons for many terms to come.

ABOUT EAST COAST TASMANIA TOURISM

East Coast Tasmania Tourism (ECTT) is an incorporated Organisation which operates within the footprint of the Glamorgan Spring Bay and Break O'Day Council areas. It has operated since 2012.

The Organisation sets the strategic direction for tourism in the region, identifies priorities and delivers programs that engage industry and stakeholders.

ECTT has two full-time positions available for highly motivated individuals, replacing current short-term contracts. Both roles support the sustainable growth in tourism on the East Coast by working with the visitor industry, communities and our partners, to drive demand, develop destination experiences and industry development for the economic, social and environmental benefit of East Coast Tasmania.
