FUNDING AVAILABLE TO HELP LOCAL COMMUNITIES REMEMBER THOSE WHO SERVED

Funding is now available for projects that preserve our local military history and honour our service personnel.

The Federal Government's Saluting Their Service (STS) Commemorative Grants Program is designed to preserve our wartime history, and highlight the service and sacrifice of our defence personnel in all wars, conflicts and peace operations.

Federal Member for Lyons Brian Mitchell said communities across Lyons are proud of their military history, our local veterans who have served our nation and their families who have supported them.

"Our local communities recognise the importance of commemorating and honouring the contribution of our servicemen and women and all that they have done for our nation," Mr Mitchell said.

"This program helps to preserve Australia's wartime heritage, providing valuable financial support, and highlighting the dedication and sacrifice of our veterans. "Whether it's building or maintaining a local war memorial, installing a flagpole in a school's Anzac memorial garden, or helping local museums display wartime memorabilia, this funding will help ensure that our community and nation never forget the men and women who have served Australia."

The STS program provides up to $10,000 for local and community-based projects and activities, such as flagpoles, memorials, digital honour rolls, and even upgrades to RSL facilities.

In addition, grants of up to $150,000 are available for significant national, state/territory or regional projects and activities.

Mr Mitchell said applications for the next funding round are now open and close on 8 February 2021.

"I want to urge local ex-service and community organisations, councils and schools to apply for funding," Mr Mitchell said. For more information, visit the, visit the Department of Veterans' Affairs website at <https://www.dva.gov.au/about-us/overview/consultations-and-grants/grants-and-bursaries/saluting-their-service>.

BEST TASTING WATER IN AUSTRALIA TO BE DECIDED IN TASMANIA

The country's top drop will be decided tomorrow as part of the Water Industry Operators Association of Australia (WIOA) Ixom Best Tasting Tap Water in Australia Competition. Tasmania is hosting the finals after water from TasWater's Rossarden Water Treatment Plant, in the state's Northern Midlands, won the national title in 2020 before taking out the title of the Best Municipal Water at the Berkeley Springs International Water Tasting event in the USA.

TasWater CEO Mike Brewster said it was an honour to host the national taste testing again this year.

"We hosted the taste testing back in 2017 after we won the national title in 2016 with water from Barrington," he said.

"With water from our Rossarden Water Treatment Plant winning the national title last year, we again have the privilege of helping to decide the next winner."

"And in a major coup for Tasmania and Australia, Rossarden won the best municipal water in the world, which was the first time water from Australia had won the prestigious award."

Water from Rocky Creek, in the Huon Valley, was nominated as this year's Tasmanian sample.

"Much like Rossarden, water from Rocky Creek had previously been subject to 'boil water alerts', before TasWater upgraded its water treatment process under the 24glass-ess Regional Towns Water Supply Program in 2018," Mr Brewster said.

"It's a testament to the hard work our staff and contractors did under the program, and the work they continue to do to ensure safe, clean and good tasting water is provided to their local communities."

One of the judges for tomorrow's taste testing event is the National Chairman of Selectors for the Australian Men's International Cricket Team, George Bailey, who said he was looking forward to tap water. "Having just finished a successful Ashes series where several tough selection decisions were made, I am really looking forward to being involved in judging the best tasting tap water in the country," he said.

"I've spent a lot of time traveling the globe as a cricketer and myself and my family don't take it for granted how lucky we are to have amazing natural resources and quality drinking water in our home state of Tasmania."

WIOA Chief Operations Officer Craig Mathisen said it was great that the taste testing for the national award was back in Tasmania.

To keep all our patients safe during the recent outbreak of the Omicron Virus, we do not want any patients to enter the facility and sit in the waiting room. If you have an appointment, please wait in your car or be seated outside and wait until you are called to enter. You can ring ahead to see if there are any delays prior to your appointment time. This is a difficult time, and we want to keep you all safe when entering the facility. Phone appointments are also available if you have seen your Dr in the last three months.

Adult Covid vaccination clinics will be held outside in the May Shaw Health Centre gazebo. Please follow the footpath along the outside car park to the gate that leads to the gazebo. Please wear a mask, remember safe distancing and please be patient as this will be a new experience for us all.

Thank you for your co-operation and we hope that you are all keeping safe during this challenging time.

A MEMORIAL FOR THE LATE GEOFF READ

is to be held as following:

Venue: Swansea Bowls Club

Date: Wednesday Feb 2nd

Time: 1:30pm

This has been organised so that friends of Geoff can meet together and celebrate his special life and say a last goodbye to him. Friends and acquaintances are respectively invited to come along and share their memories of our friend.

Rob & Toni Golley

Please be careful and Covid safe, check in on the app at the venue and bring your mask. Light refreshments will be provided. Tea, coffee and the bar will be open. We look forward to catching up with all to share a final farewell to Geoff. Gone but always remembered.

The new school year and COVID-19.

It is important to know that our schools are safe

Give your child the best start to the new school year and make every day of learning count by attending school regularly.

COVID-19 safety measures are in place across all schools, in line with Public Health advice, including:

- Frequent cleaning and increased hygiene practices
- Increased ventilation in classrooms with open windows and use of air purifiers
- Use of outdoor learning areas
- Vaccination of all Department of Education staff, volunteers and contractors
- Wearing face masks indoors by all staff and high school students (masks will be provided to students as needed).

The combined effect of these measures will ensure a safe learning environment.

The best way to protect your child from COVID-19 is to get them vaccinated. Children aged 5 to 11 years are now able to get the COVID-19 vaccine, with dedicated children's clinics operating statewide.

Face masks are required indoors

For everyone aged 12 and older (unless exempt)

You must wear a face mask when indoors.

This includes places such as the supermarket, inside restaurants, and indoor workplaces.

You are not required to wear a mask inside a home – whether you live there or are visiting.

Keep a mask with you in case you need to wear it unexpectedly. You may remove your mask when undertaking certain activities, such as physical exercise or to eat or drink.

Some people with medical exemptions do not need to wear a mask. Reasons for not wearing a mask are not always obvious, so please be respectful of others.

WHAT'S SO FUNNY?

A child asked his father, "How were people born?" So his father said, "Adam and Eve made babies, then their babies became adults and made babies, and so on." The child then went to his mother, asked her the same question and she told him, "We were monkeys then we evolved to become like we are now." The child ran back to his father and said, "You lied to me!" His father replied, "No, your mom was talking about her side of the family."

A woman gets on a bus with her baby. The bus driver says, "That's the ugliest baby that I've ever seen. Ugh!" The woman goes to the rear of the bus and sits down, fuming. She says to a man next to her, "The driver just insulted me!" The man says, "You go right up there and tell him off – go ahead, I'll hold your monkey for you."

Wife: "In my dream, I saw you in a jewellery store and you bought me a diamond ring."

Husband: "I had the same dream and I saw your dad paying the bill."

Satan fuming, called a staff meeting. Hades had become too soft an option, he scolded, due to their fiendish complacency and idleness. Every little devil must tighten up, crack down, and give guests a hell of a time, he decreed. "I want them tested to the limit, tormented, humiliated – but the twist is, you must hold out false promise that things will get better."

"Like it is in golf, eh?" a fork-tailed junior executive suggested, anxious to show he had caught on.

Satan, taken aback, spluttered, "Hold on, nothing that strong, old son. They're only human, and they have to last out eternity, remember..."
