CHANGES TO CHECK IN TASMANIAN APP REQUIREMENTS

FEWER VENUES NOW REQUIRED TO USE CHECK IN TAS QR CODES

From 6:00 pm Friday, 18 February 2022 only some businesses, venues and locations will be required to display Check in TAS QR codes and collect contact tracing information on behalf of the Department of Health.

The changes to Check in TAS are being made to better reflect Tasmania's current public health measures and in response to the ongoing pandemic.

Public Health have reviewed the Contact Tracing Direction and determined that lower-risk settings, where people spend less time and there is less risk of transmission, will no longer be required to use Check in TAS.

From 6:00 pm Friday 18 February, the Check in TAS app is still required to be used at:

- Gaming and gambling locations such as casinos and premises where there are gaming machines
- Gatherings approved under the Framework for COVID-19 Safe Events and Activities, for the duration of the event
- All pubs, bars, clubs, night clubs and hotels that are licensed premises or permit premises.

Which businesses, venues or locations should remove their Check in TAS QR code from display, and people no longer need to check in to?

The locations no longer required to display their Check in TAS QR codes or have people check in to from 6:00 pm Friday, 18 February 2022 are:

- Accommodation locations
- Airports
- Tourist and tourism locations
- Cinemas, theatres, libraries, galleries, museums, historic sites, arenas, auditoriums and stadiums (unless required under the Events Framework), amusement parks, arcades, play centres, playgrounds, skate parks, zoos, wildlife centres, animal parks, petting zoos, aquariums, marine parks
- Fitness, sports and physical recreation locations such as gyms, health clubs, fitness centres, swimming pools, spas, saunas, ovals, sports fields/courts
- Restaurants, cafes and other food courts/businesses and outlets, mobile food vans (unless captured in an event under the Event Framework)
- Hair, beauty and personal care locations
- Health, medical and aged care locations
- Passenger transport services and locations
- Places of worship locations
- Retail locations

Businesses and venues that are no longer required to use Check in TAS, are asked remove signage from display including QR codes and any paper-based check-in used to collect contact information. The QR codes should be kept on hand in case they are required in the future.

Locations that are no longer required to use Check in TAS will also need to update their COVID Safety Plans to remove references to Check in TAS, and the need for patrons to check in.

More information will soon be available on the coronavirus website at: www.coronavirus.tas.gov.au or for questions please call Business Tasmania on 1800 440 026.

BUSINESS & WORKERS STILL HURTING DESPITE GUTWEIN DECLARING TIMES ARE GOOD

More than 1,400 Tasmanian jobs were lost last month and workers continue to struggle to make ends meet as the Gutwein Government's lack of preparation for the fresh wave of COVID continues to bite.

Shadow Treasurer Shane Broad said in addition to the jobs that disappeared in January, Tasmania still had 2,000 fewer jobs today than before the pandemic and thousands of Tasmanian have given up looking for work, with the state's workforce participation rate down to 60 per cent - the same level as at the peak of the lockdowns in 2020 - and well behind the national rate of 66.2 per cent.

"Additionally, the latest ABS data shows the total number of hours worked across Tasmania fell by 5.1 per cent as people continue to lose shifts and struggle to make ends meet," Dr Broad said.

"The fact is Mr Gutwein is too distracted dealing with the chaos and disarray in his Cabinet to focus on the things that matter to Tasmanians - earning a fair wage and putting food on the table.

"Many businesses have been struggling to keep their doors open and provide hours for their employees.

"The government needs to act now and adopt Labor's Supporting Business, Supporting Jobs package which includes fundamental, workable solutions including providing eligible businesses a rebate of fixed network charges for their next power and water bills and a land tax rebate for those landlords who commit to passing this rent relief on to tenants.

DO YOU HAVE A VEGETABLE GARDEN WITH EXCESS PRODUCE?

Swansea Primary School would be delighted to hear from you! Our cooking program is just about to begin for the year, and our garden is working hard to grow! While our vegetable production is still underway, we'd be so grateful if you had excess produce that you'd be willing to donate please. This will contribute to our student cooking program, that creates a healthy and nutritious lunch for all of our students/staff on Fridays. Eggs would also be very welcome!! Thank you so much, on behalf of our staff and students.

LETTERS TO THE EDITORIAL TEAM

In the first week in January I had a fall in my garden which resulted in four fractures. My husband called an ambulance and the Local Paramedic and a Local Volunteer Ambulance Officer arrived within a very short time. When I was unable to be carried down our back steps a second ambulance from Triabunna was called and I was carried down on a stretcher. I was transported to the RHH by the Local Paramedic and Ambulance Officer unfortunately I don't remember all your names, but I do remember that the female local Ambulance Officer name was Belinda). As well as being well looked after medically both my husband and I were shown extreme respect and compassion.

After 10 days at the RHH I was transferred to May Shaw for another 4 weeks. This was facilitated by our local, wonderful Doctors Camilla and Andrew. My stay at May Shaw was a pleasant experience where I was well looked after and spoilt by all Staff from the Nurses right down to the Cleaners. The food was excellent and I will be asking for some of the Chefs' recipes.

Also our local Pharmacist, Suzanne has surprised us by delivering our medications on her way home, much appreciated.

As a relative newcomer to Swansea (7 years) I have been blown away by the services in Swansea, you certainly wouldn't be able to access all the assistance I have been given in Hobart.

Our small Community should be extremely proud. Thanks to everyone concerned.

BURST WATER MAIN CLOSES LOCAL LIBRARY & ACCESS CENTRE

On Thursday the Swansea Primary school was forced to partially close down areas of school property after a mains water pipe burst in the play area between the school building. The affected areas included the Library and Online Centre which used water from the damaged mains.

Local plumbers were quickly on site to close the break and start repairs.

The affected areas will remain closed until the repairs are complete, which should be at the time of writing this report, on Monday 21st Feb.

WHAT'S SO FUNNY?

A guy is going on an ocean cruise and he tells his doctor that he's worried about getting sea-sick. The doctor suggests, "Eat two pounds of stewed tomatoes before you leave the dock." The guy replies, "Will that keep me from getting sick, Doc?" The doctor says, "No, but it'll look really pretty in the water."

Give a man a fish and he will eat for a day. Teach him how to fish and he will sit in a boat and drink beer all day.

A man walks into a bar and sits down. He asks the bartender, "Can I have a cigarette?" The bartender replies, "Sure, the cigarette machine is over there." So he walks over to the machine and as he is about to order a cigarette, the machine suddenly says, "Oi, you bloody idiot." The man says with surprise in his voice, "That's not very nice." He returns to his bar stool without a cigarette and asks the bartender for some peanuts. The bartender passes the man a bowl of peanuts and the man hears one of the peanuts speak, "Ooh, I like your hair." The man says to the bartender, "Hey, what's going on here? Your cigarette machine is insulting me and this peanut is coming on to me. Why's this?" The bartender replies, "Oh, that's because the machine is out of order and the peanuts are complementary."

would like to update the community about our plans for a return to local footy in the future. Unfortunately, we won't be fielding a side this 2022 season, but we will be taking advantage of a year's recess to build and plan for a competitive 2023 season.

You will see us out in the community raising money and interest and appreciate any support. New ideas and newcomers are more than welcome to our monthly meetings.

We would also like to take the opportunity to thank former Club President Paul Wright for his dedication and hard work for the Club over many years.

Our next Meeting will be at 7.30pm on the Wednesday 23rd February at the Club rooms.

Secretary SFC*
