Issue 16.2022

ANZAC DAY 2022, SWANSEA.

The weather was perfect as Swansea veterans and onlookers gathered together to remember the fallen and honour those still with us.

The march and service had a good attendance on the day with the drum band and following veterans marching up the main street with pride and wheeling at its end, then returning, halting in front of the heritage museum and it's memorial to the those that had served their country in time of need.

The service and the laying of wreaths proceeded and was completed in due course. The final anthem played and all there moved away, many to join the festivities at the RSL Club which was close by.

LETTERS TO THE EDITORIAL TEAM

In the 'Mercury' on Tuesday 19th April, an article inserted by Red Panda Property Group claims that the family Business of Morris' Store has been sold.

THIS IS NOT CORRECT.

The Morris Family have entered into an agreement with Red Panda Property which allows Red Panda to prepare plans and submissions to Council, The Tasmanian Heritage Council, and various Government Departments which might allow preservation work on the old building and, in the very long term, repurposing. IF all these approvals are granted, and IF a number of other critical conditions are met, then a sale might proceed. Amongst these conditions there is a legally binding agreement that continuing long term career employment is maintained for all our dedicated staff, and that all their status and entitlements are retained. Until all these conditions and approvals are formalised, the entire business will continue to be owned and operated by the Morris Family.

You ask 'why might we sell'

Well, we are old and tired. The building is old and like all old people will require on-going care which over the long term will exceed our physical and mental ability. We could talk about the problems of operating an old fashioned business in a modern world. We could talk about the seemingly never ending increase in regulation and pointless red tape, we could talk about the discrimination against small business, particularly small family business, by all four levels of Government. We could talk about the demise of Australian manufacturing and the restrictions on stock supplies.

*We could talk about ....
But, in the end, we are old and tired.*

A.J. Morris

 Health and Aged Care for Living

CALLING FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST
 WE WOULD LIKE TO HEAR FROM you

May Shaw Health Centre recognises the benefit of involving both consumers and the community in health, and aged care service planning, delivery and review.

Partnering with consumers and the community leads to a more informed decision making process, a collaborative approach, planning, policy and process development and evaluation of health care and services. The aim is to provide overall quality and safe health care and services to our communities that meet their needs now and into the future.

This Committee will form part of our Engagement and Clinical Governance Framework and partner with the Clinical Governance Committee to co-design and deliver safe, quality aged care services to the community.

May Shaw is calling for Expressions of Interest from interested persons to add to our Consumer Engagement Committee, with a representative from the following groups/organisations:

- Residential Recipients
- Respite
- Home Care Recipients
- May Shaw Sub-Acute Services
- May Shaw Urgent Care Centre (UCC)
- May Shaw Units - Swansea
- Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Persons
- LGBTIQ
- Significant Community Groups
- Local Fire Service
- Disability Sector
- Local Ambulance Volunteer
- Aboriginal & Torres Strait Island Representative

Eligibility Requirements:

- Members are consumer and/or carers who have had first-hand experience of the health and aged care services delivered by May Shaw Health Centre.
- Members should be active in the community, have strong community networks and a sound understanding of local or regional issues.
- Members have the time to commit to quarterly meetings, 1-2 hour duration for a term of 12 months. Members have a genuine interest in improving the quality and safety of health, aged care services that meets the communities of Swansea and Scottsdale's needs now and into the future.

Your Role:

- Provide feedback and comments on health and aged care services.
- Undertake reviews and provide feedback on documentation, equipment and services.
- Be a spokesperson for your respective group.
- Partner with the organisation to ensure the community of Swansea and Scottsdale's voices are heard, acknowledged and valued.
- Facilitation of communication and consultation within the community where appropriate.

If you are interested in becoming a member please lodge your EOI outlining your experience, interests and reasons for wishing to join the Committee addressed to:
 Michelle Parry, Executive Assistant, May Shaw Health Centre, PO Box 343, Swansea Tas 7190 or email: michelle.parry@mayshaw.com.au
 Expressions of Interest close Friday 29th April 2022. If there is more than one application received from the above groups, a selection process will be undertaken.
