LOCAL GIRL DOING SWANSEA PROUD

ENTICE HAIR & BEAUTY STUDIO SWANSEA

3 Franklin St Swansea
Owner Laura (Hay) Woods

Laura was born & raised in Swansea opening Entice Hair & Beauty Studio in May 2018 a dream for Laura. Laura was a qualified hairdresser at the age of 19, opening & operating her business now for 4 years in our little town of Swansea

Business is thriving due to the amount of local and surroundings community support also interstate, Laura has always enjoyed bridal styling.

In 2019 Laura was a finalist for Bridal Hair Stylist with Brides choice awards Wedding Industry, and in 2022 Laura was again a finalist & made the top 5 in the state (Tas) as a Bridal Hair Stylist.

Brides & grooms are contacted by the wedding industry to cast a vote and on their top 5 service providers in the state and a function is usually held to announce top 10, top 5, runner ups & winners due to covid in 2021 - 2022 an online virtual event was held and the nominees were announced in March this year.

LINX Program worker Suzie with the first intake of workers at the Swansea Backpackers

SEASONAL WORKERS SCHEME

Swansea residents may notice some unfamiliar faces appearing in the town with an influx of male and female seasonal workers from Vanuatu.

A group of 20 workers arrived on May 29th with 14 additional workers arriving on June 9th. A further 10 workers from Samoa will be arriving on June 20th.

All workers will be staying at the Swansea Backpackers.

The Pacific Australia Labour Mobility (PALM) scheme allows eligible Australian businesses to hire workers from 9 Pacific islands and Timor-Leste when there are not enough local workers available.

The PALM scheme helps to fill labour gaps in rural and regional Australia by offering employers access to a pool of reliable, productive workers. It also allows Pacific and Timor-Leste workers to take up jobs in Australia, develop their skills and send income home to support their families and communities.

The wellbeing of Pacific and Timor-Leste workers in Australia is of the highest priority for the Australian Government. All participating workers have the same rights and protections as Australian workers. A stringent criteria range of measures is in place to protect workers, including vetting of employers and accommodation providers, site visits and spot checks and regular reporting requirements.

Workers are also encouraged and supported to connect to their local communities in rural and regional Australia.

Chris MacGregor, as the new owner of the backpackers I am pleased to have the workers staying. Vanuatu people are incredibly friendly and welcoming at all times. This is because they are generally kind people, but also because showing anger is considered impolite in their culture. They are very quiet and co-operative at the hostel and always keep the place orderly. As they are predominately here to save money and learn new skills, the workers spend most of their limited spare time relaxing at the hostel, cooking fish outside around a fire pot, fishing and chatting with family back home on their mobiles.

A pool table at the hostel would be a delight. If you have one lying around that you no longer need and would like to sell or donate please contact Chris on 0407342918.

Other items required include a chest freezer, bunks and extra blankets. (Vanuatu is blessed with a tropical climate that provides year-round good weather)

Chris MacGregor
