WE NEVER STOP LEARNING

Sunday mornings usually are set aside for a lazy start but not for our dedicated Freycinet coast emergency service volunteers. Around 30 volunteers descended upon Glen Gala Road on Sunday morning 7th August to participate in a joint road rescue training scenario. The scene consisted of 2 vehicles with 3 injured occupants lots of wet mud with a spattering of showers thrown in for good measure.

Sounds pretty much like any incident we may attend add to the realism of the scenario 3 very vocal casualties with rather realistic injuries. Like usual all of our volunteers worked seamlessly together, Ambo's assessing and treating patients, SES undertaking the task of extricating the patients and keeping our ambulance volunteers safe. Whilst fire was ever vigilant keeping a watchful eye out for potential risk of fire.

The morning proved to be a invaluable learning opportunity, a chance to try new techniques , hone existing skills , work as a team and meet the volunteers that make up the frontline of our emergency services on the coast.

A training opportunity like this doesn't just happen it takes time to plan and setup, shift vehicles and clean-up, to coordinate the various volunteers and volunteer patients.

Thanks must go to our local paramedic Andrew for the drive to get this off the ground, our volunteers for giving up their time, local police and neighbouring paramedics for their attendance, East Coast towing for the moving of our training car, SES volunteers for shifting of vehicles at days end , photographers for some great pics . Also, the public for their understanding and patients around Cranbrook.

We will endeavour to continue this great learning opportunity into the future with more joint scenario-based training to be planned.

If you would like to assist our local volunteers catch one of our amazing volunteers or email us swanseases@gmail.com

BRIAN MITCHELL MP FEDERAL MEMBER FOR LYONS

Brian Mitchell MP is holding a Mobile Member Day in the Glamorgan Spring Bay municipality in August.

"These days provide east coast residents the opportunity to touch base with me without having to travel to my offices in Perth and Bridgewater," Mr Mitchell said.

"I host Mobile Member Days regularly throughout Lyons and people tell me they're a really effective way to get their issues across."

Mr Mitchell said locals could book an appointment to discuss national current affairs, personal matters relating to interactions with federal agencies, or just for a chat with their local MP.

"I'm here to serve the people of Lyons and it's up to them what they want to raise with me," Mr Mitchell said. "I'm very happy to be able to catch up with people in their local community to talk about whatever is important to them."

The next Mobile Member Day in Glamorgan Spring Bay will be held Thursday August 18 at the Swansea Community Rooms from 10am to 4pm and bookings are essential.

Call (03) 6398 1115 to book a time.

LETTERS TO THE EDITORIAL TEAM

Dear Editor, we wish to express our deep sadness on the passing of Craig Johnston, and our deepest sympathies to Mrs. Jennifer Johnston, his wife of 62 years.

We first met Craig and Jennifer at the Anglican and Uniting churches, not long after we purchased our residence in Swansea back in 2016. Thereafter, we very much enjoyed and respected their acquaintance as the years moved forward. We always found Craig to be an unassuming, generous, retiring, quiet, calm and sincere gentleman (in every respect of that word), and we always enjoyed conversing with he and Jennifer.

We are truly deeply saddened by Craig's passing, and we extend our deepest condolences to Jennifer and the family and the countless friends they have in Tasmania and elsewhere.

Undoubtedly, the world is a lesser place for Craig's passing. We will miss him, as will many others. May he now be at peace with his Lord, and may he rest in peace. "Well done thou good and faithful servant."

Yours sincerely,

John and Ronda Gault.

FREYCINET CHALLENGE CELEBRATES 21 YEARS IN 2022

The Freycinet Challenge is an iconic multi-sport event, running over two days through the stunning Freycinet Peninsula at Coles Bay, which is on the East Coast of Tasmania. The event offers athletes the unique opportunity to compete in a location that is considered to be one of the most beautiful places in Australia.

The Challenge is divided into 8 separate stages, with 4 stages running on each day of competition. The athletes compete in the sporting disciplines of Trail Running, Sea Kayaking, Mountain Biking and Road Cycling - taking on the Challenge as part of a team or as a solo competitor.

Last year saw the largest number of solo competitors and a field of 115 teams participating, which resulted in over 450 athletes taking on the Challenge. The race directors are hopeful of achieving similar numbers this year.

This year there is a new Mountain Biking course that takes the competitors into the Freycinet National Park. "We've been working closely with the Parks & Wildlife Service and the mountain bikers are going to love the thrill of the downhill course we put together" said Race Director, Mark Howell.

The event is also introducing a Juniors team category with shorter Trail Running and Sea Kayaking courses. "We're hoping to inspire more younger athletes to participate and introduce them to the world of multi-sport racing" Mark said.

Competitors in the Men's Solo division will be challenging Alex Hunt, who is aiming for his seventh consecutive win. Georgia Nesbitt is the defending Women's champion and is returning to the competition this year.

The Freycinet Challenge is supported by a team of volunteers from the State Emergency Service, the Bicheno Surf Life Saving Club and the Scamander Surf Life Saving Club, ensuring the safety of all the competitors and spectators.

"Some athletes do this to win the race, but many are taking it on as a personal challenge, or doing it for the adventure and we run the event to accommodate people with a wide range of abilities" Mark said.

Registrations for the Freycinet Challenge are open now and the 21st edition of the race will be on at Coles Bay on the weekend of 8-9 October 2022.

SWANSEA RSL BISTRO UPDATE

Renovations at the bistro are progressing well with much of the major infrastructure completed. Delays have occurred due to the need to ensure the structural integrity of the building was up to standard which has added to the workload. We anticipate reopening before the end of August if all goes to plan. Community and members will be notified as soon as we have a definite date.

We are looking forward to welcoming everyone back to the bistro.
