RESIGNATION OF COUNCILLOR GREG LUCK

It is with regret that the General Manager of Glamorgan Spring Bay Council has received and accepted Councillor Greg Luck's resignation from Council, effective from 12 September 2023.

Councillor Luck has served on Glamorgan Spring Bay Council since his election in November 2022. During his tenure, he contributed as a member of the Cranbrook Hall Committee and the Municipal Emergency Management Committee, and we extend our appreciation to him for his service over the past ten months.

The Director of Local Government and the Tasmanian Electoral Commissioner have been duly informed of Councillor Luck's resignation.

BLUES BROTHERS DOES THE VINEYARDS

On Saturday the 9th September Craigg Knowe Vineyard at Cranbrook hosted a Blues Brothers Revival Band Show.

'The Shots' from Swansea, Jarrod, Tom and Tony were the warm up band.

An excellent afternoon was had by all, with lots of dancing and both bands were great, putting on very good acts!

(thank you Jenny Kay and Chris Dees for info and photos)

WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS

Swansea RSL Club are the East Coast Association Premiers for a third year in a row back to back to back.

Swansea finished the home and away season on top of the ladder claiming the minor Premiership award, winning the 2nd semi to progress straight into the grand final, two week's later on the 13th Sept played Blue Waters winning a tight tussle 5 games to 4. With our Captain Dennis (Speed) Gray winning the final game, the Swansea Team and supporters erupted with cheers and hand shakes. Swansea's Rick Fulton was awarded the best on the table trophy, winning two of the five games. Awards and medals given out and on the bus for a rowdy trip home.

We would like to thank our major sponsor Bob Moore from Swansea Service Centre.

If you would like to play or become a member of our happy and successful club please call into the RSL for a chat. The 2024 season starts in March love to see you there.

Visit the Transport website for a detour map and additional information.

DOLPHIN SANDS

SWAN RIVER RD

Next week will see dozens of eminent engineers and scientists from across the globe descend on Swansea. Their mission? To investigate Dolphin Sands' very own Bermuda Triangle. Yes, that 30 metre strip of road surface on Swan River Road that, despite years of constant attention, continues to disintegrate on a daily basis. While in its current state it serves as a speed trap for tradies hurtling along to Baggot Point, it is now a hazard for small vehicles and a positive peril for cyclists.

This stretch of road has defied all efforts by road crews, graders, rollers, gravel and bitumen to survive intact for a more than a week at time. Ever optimistic local residents continue to be disappointed not to see their favourite sink hole feature in the weekly road maintenance reports published in this newsletter.

Let's hope the experts can shed some light on this curious phenomenon and come up with a lasting solution.

It is galling to be able to walk - and in some cases drive - on roads in Europe laid down in Roman times, something we can't seem to duplicate here.
