Issue 39.2017 Year 15

Glamorgan Spring Bay Council Curfew Placed on Local Football Clubs.

Local community football is a significant contributor to our community in terms of economic contribution, social inclusion and networking and mental and physical health. Involvement in local football has many pro-social and economic benefits to individuals promoting improved health and greater social inclusion.

Local and international research validates the many significant benefits to the community of local football clubs.

The Centre for Sport and Social Impact (CSSI) at La Trobe University was commissioned by the AFL in 2015 to look into the social value of community football clubs and its influence on health and the wider community. It found for every $1 spent to run an average club, there was at least $4.40 returned in terms of social connectedness, wellbeing and mental health status.

It also led to improved employment outcomes, personal development, physical health, civic pride and the support of other community groups. The research also found that social events and club functions meant people were engaging with the community and played an important role in helping young people find work.

Similar research in NSW found that football activity generates economic activity directly and has an economic flow-on effect to other sectors of industry, such as administration; information technology; health services and education; retailing; construction; accommodation; food services; and transport.

There are a range of unique social benefits that participation in football arguably does better than many other sports and community activities. This occurs most notably in the development of social capital which combines measures of trust (interpersonal and society), the diversity of personal networks, and the extent of an individual's engagement within a community.

Recently the President of the Swansea Football Club received a letter from Council stating that due to 'inappropriate behaviour' the club would be subject to a council imposed curfew of 9 pm. No further details were provided in regards to the alleged event/s. No consultation or discussion occurred prior to the letter being received. A similar letter was delivered to Triabunna Football Club.

Whilst the building at Swansea is situated on crown land, the club itself raises significant funds to help maintain and improve the premises and operate a football club which supports our young people. It is operated by dedicated volunteers. The clubrooms, whilst 'owned' by the council, belong to the community, for the benefit of the community, particularly our young people.

The club currently holds a liquor license until 12 midnight on Saturday evenings and shorter hours on Thursday nights which allows the club to raise vital funds through hosting social events, usually at home games during the football season. Without the ability to raise funds through social functions our local football club will be at risk of closing its doors. This would have a significant negative impact on our community.

Prior to receiving the letter, the club had held one major event on 17th June. This was a family friendly event and the club rooms operated without any incidents. The bar was operated in accordance with our liquor license and closed at the correct time. There was no inappropriate behaviour noted and no police presence at any time before, during or after the event. The club has received no formal notification from the Police or Liquor Licensing in regards to any alleged incident involving the operation of the club and the only complaint, about some broken glass, was dealt with early in the morning. As a result of this complaint the club has decided to sell cans in preference to glass at all social events.

Letter to the Editor

Lots of people complain lots of times about fuel (and other) prices in Tasmania.

While working around Melbourne on Tuesday, I noted that most service stations were displaying a price of 139.7¢ litre. Some, particularly in the city, at 142.9, and yes there were a few in the outer suburbs rather cheaper.

Back in Swansea, the price displayed was $142.9¢ So obviously you can drive 600 km and fill up at a saving of 3¢. Sounds good value to me.
A. J. Morris.

Editor's Note: Whilst acknowledging that Unleaded is cheaper on the mainland historically the price increases the week before a public holiday in Victoria. Friday was a Public Holiday (without name but with a purpose of enabling people to attend a parade of overpaid sportsmen, who had nothing better to do with their time. Bill Fry

A curfew like this, especially when there has been no issues and when there has been no process to resolve any potential issues, will not only greatly affect the clubs' ability to raise funds, but also seems very unfair.

After alerting all of the local Councillors about the issue via email, it was discovered that the majority of them did not know about the letter imposing a curfew. As a result of conversations and the information provided Cllr. Debbie Wisby believed in putting forward a motion at the next meeting. This motion stated:

“1. That the General Manager immediately advises the Swansea Football Club and Triabunna Football Club that the recently imposed 9 pm curfew is withdrawn and the prior operating arrangements recommence.

2. That as a matter of urgency, a meeting is convened with Tasmania Police Officers/relevant personnel and Councillors to formulate a strategic plan to improve safety within our municipal area.

3. That Councillors work with and provide support to our valued community clubs, organisations and Tasmania Police to enhance and support their efforts.

4. That Council apologises to the Triabunna Football Club and Swansea Football Club for the lack of consultation and any inconvenience caused by this matter.

5. That any significant changes to operating hours or use rules relating to Council facilities will be a decision of Council unless in the event of an emergency. In the event of changes due to an emergency, those changes will be presented in a report at the next Council meeting.”

Despite the evidence relating to the benefits of local football, which was put to Councillors, it appears that the majority do not support the benefits of community sporting clubs. In fact, despite one Councillor stating that “It would be a foolish person to under estimate the power of the people” the majority, including this very Councillor, voted against the motion anyway. Another Councillor stated “I am in agreement with you on the points you make about the role football clubs play in a community and the substantial contribution they make to their respective communities”, and yet despite this view, this Councillor also voted against the motion.

The vote was For: Cllr. Jenifer Crawford, Cllr. Debbie Wisby.

Against: Mayor Michael Kent, Cllr. Richard Parker, Cllr. Britt Steiner, Cllr. Jenny Woods.

As a result each time the football club wishes to have people on the premises after 9 pm written permission must be sought two weeks prior to each event from the General Manager. Surely we all have better things to do? It is not clear who this information will be shared with or what the purpose of this process is. It is also unclear if this will be extended to other sporting associations such as cricket and netball or other groups or to other community owned facilities.

So next time we go to the polls to vote for your local Councillors, please remember the Councillors who do not support our young people, who do not support the hard work of volunteers and who do not support the economic and social benefits of sporting clubs in our community, despite what they actually say!

Cambria Drive Nature Vandal YOU MUST STOP !!!!

Your actions recently and 3 months ago, have destroyed much of the native growth of the fire-retardant Banksias and young peppermint gums in the walkway to 9 Mile beach (first beach access in Cambria) this has brought a great deal of distress to the neighbouring property owners because when you have slashed like an "inconsiderate demon possessed chain saw" you have not cleaned out the branches after yourself. Leaving them where they lay, this of course has now become a major fire hazard.

You have destroyed years of growth that has worked as a privacy screen to the adjacent properties. Destroyed habitat to a number of rare bird species for the area.

The police and council are concerned regarding the degree of vandalism. If you need the room to get to the beach then go to the entrance on Dolphin Sands Road?

HELP

Is now required to assist in clearing the large number of remaining branches to the carpark for council to pick up.

To all the good and decent neighbours of Cambria Drive please stop at the walk way over the week end and pull out some of the branches, if we all do a little it will get clear and be safe for the summer to come.

Your thoughtfulness will be greatly appreciated

From Concerned Residents (let's look out for one another)

Great partnerships = Great results for the Community

The Swansea/Bicheno Community Bank ® is pleased to re-confirm its continuing support of the Bicheno Food and Wine Festival for another three years. This event has been around for over 10 years now and has well and truly become an important part of the Tasmanian events calendar as well as continuing to provide economic benefit to the community as a whole.

This year the Bank's generous sponsorship program has provided the opportunity to fund, for the first time, a stand-alone marquee at the event which will provide a quiet space for volunteers, presenters and musicians on the day. The "Swansea/Bicheno Community Bank ® Marquee" (as it will be called) is a new initiative for the Festival organisers and will be a great boon for the potential users as well as a prominent part of the Festival landscape.

The Bank is very excited to be a part of the event again but this time with a functional role and, as a result, Bank staff and festival members were happy to get together recently to celebrate the union at the Lions Park in Bicheno.

What is your Loved Ones worth?

What is the most important thing you might carry in your vehicle?
 Maybe some valuable jewellery?
 Maybe a pet?
 Maybe a loved one?

Most would say a loved one or even a child!

So why would you deliberately place a child at risk by placing them in the front seat of a vehicle?

It is against the law to place a child under 7 in the front seat of a vehicle (where there are rear seats available) so why do we still see children under this age in the front, there is No excuse, They don't get to argue and they are under your care, they TRUST YOU to keep them SAFE. A child seat in the rear of the vehicle is the best place for children they are properly restrained and secured.

Most car manufacturers don't recommend children under the age of 12 be seated in the front seats due to the risk of the air bags deploying. The excuse of "I was only going to the shop" or "I only have a short distance to get home" really doesn't count.

Yes we live in a small community and we know the area BUT we also live in a tourist community where people visiting our area don't know the town and in many cases are far too busy looking around to be properly concentrating on the road ahead. We have all encountered the tourist pulling up suddenly in the road to take that photo or let a bird fly off.

Don't let it be you trying to blame someone else when your child gets injured because you needed to stop suddenly and they were improperly secured. Remember PROPER CHILD RESTRAINTS MATTER!

It's Your Responsibility

Checkout our website for more info on child restraints www.swansea-ses.weebly.com & keep a look out for our Child restraint bumper stickers around the town.

What happened to good manners and respect for your elders?

I tried to teach my boys as they were growing up to always use your manners, respect your elders and never ever answer back.

Fizzle (Anthony) was about 8 or 9 years old, when I asked him to clean his room, that it was a disgrace.

His reply : "No". I very indignantly said "I Beg Your Pardon?" His answer very sheepishly was "No, thank you".

Needless to say, he did clean his room...however it took about 3 months and he got me back.

The end of the school year and he brought all his books, art and other things home. I looked through one of his books that contained essays. One of his essays caught my eye, so I started reading.

"How I clean up my bedroom," he wrote, "I pick up all my toys and put them in the toy box. I make my bed. I pick up and fold my clothes and put clean ones in the drawers, dirty ones in the laundry, and anything left over, I chuck under the spare bed cause mum never looks there."

His teacher wrote a comment that said "I don't think you should show your mother this, Anthony."
