

Glamorgan Spring Bay Council - Local Football Clubs - Curfew Reply

In response to the anonymous article published on the front page of the Great Oyster Bay Community News on the 3rd October, the Glamorgan Spring Bay Council would like to state the following:

Council fully acknowledges and absolutely agrees with the writers points regarding the multitude of benefits of our local sporting clubs and the social functions and events associated with these clubs. The social, physical, mental and economic benefits are without question.

The letters to the clubs that are referenced by the author were sent based on discussions with and a request from Tasmania Police. There were a series of incidents that prompted the Police to contact Council's General Manager and make this request. The incidents were deemed serious enough by the Police in relation to public safety, that the request was acted on.

The series of events being described by the author took place in July this year and after the initial letters to the clubs, Council convened a meeting with Tasmania Police and the Presidents of the football clubs. Sitting around the table with Council, it was agreed with the Presidents that the curfew would continue with some minor changes to make this workable for the clubs.

Since this time, Council has not been alerted to any dissatisfaction or concerns from the local football clubs themselves.

Although the author of the article does not wish to be identified, the Editor of the Great Oyster Bay Community News informs us that it was not written by a member of either of the local football clubs. We are unsure as to why it has been raised at this time when the measures to ensure the best possible outcomes for all involved have been implemented.

Social, physical, mental and economic benefits only come when there is no great risk to public safety due to the behaviour of a very small few. The curfew appears to have minimised this risk.

Council is more than happy to review these measures with the football clubs should there be any new concerns or difficulties that have become apparent 3 months since the measures were first implemented.

Editor's Note: I was approached by the contributor of last week's article in July and I advise them that we hold it back, due to the need to view the minutes from the council meeting in July, which were not published until after the August meeting, which is GSB Council's normal procedure. The contributor requested and I honoured that request to not attribute the article at this stage. Since I have been the editor, I have received many anonymous articles for publication, some under nom de plume, and have advised the author, that if they are not willing to at least supply their name, then the article will not be published.

In my email to council during this last week, I wrote that: "...I can advise that the person is not a committee person of the Swansea Football Club, nor are they an employee of Glamorgan Spring Bay Council...". I should also have included that the contributor was not a committee person of the Triabunna Football Club. (Triabunna Football Club have submitted a reply to council. Please see Page 5). I apologise to both the Council and Triabunna for this oversight. I originally wrote to the council and all the councillors on 13th July with six questions that I wished answered. My email referred only to Swansea and I was advised that a reply would be issued after the council met with the clubs. No further correspondence was received by the newsletter in relation to this matter until after the article in last week's newsletter. Bill Fry

Attention: David Metcalfe, GM, GSBC.

We feel the need to view our feelings regarding the article published on the front page of the Great Oyster Bay Community News on the 3rd October, regarding the curfew placed on our trading hours earlier this year, as the article in our opinion suggests that the footy club may have issues with the curfew, or any of the processes regarding it's implementation, or explanation.

This in fact is not the case.

We would like to dot point some of the facts regarding our clubs position in regards to the sale and consumption of alcohol.....

- Over the last few years our club has deliberately set out to reduce the sale of alcohol to a point whereby it is simply a social offering as part of attending a local football match at our managed venue.
- We have backed alcohol sales related revenue out of our annual fiscal budgets, and have successfully replaced, and even increased our overall revenue, via the generosity of local businesses (sponsorship), and the family groups who support our club, and for this we thank them sincerely.
- The fiscal year of 2017 has witnessed an even greater reduction in alcohol sales revenue for our club, to deliver a 35% reduction vs F2016, and this is in no way connected to the curfew, bad management, or by accident, as it is a deliberate policy of our committee, and this policy is fully supported by the large parent group who assist us manage the club from year to year.
- Our club has chosen a 'local youth' policy this last few years, and no person managing our club believes that increased alcohol sales are in any way a contributing factor towards increased performance on the field, and we also agree it is socially unacceptable to mix youth and alcohol off the field, therefore, as a result, we have hosted less than five functions at the club this last two years since entering the ODFA competition.....with our local youth policy.
- Our club holds a Restricted Club Alcohol License, for six months of the year, allowing us to operate for up to 15 hours per week. We would have used our full 15 hour entitlement less than three weeks during the past two years.
- Our club holds the highest level of Good Sports Accreditation, and has passed with flying colors every random visit / audit that the State Licensing Commission have conducted on us.
- The curfew placed on us is not an issue, as it is simply another level compliance that we must manage our way through as a responsible provider of alcohol related services.
- The club has produced the best 'underage' player in the ODFA for the last two seasons, and this is our focus, extended parenting, extended education, helping our local youth make good life decisions, as well as giving them the best preparation we can to deliver the on-field success that we all collectively strive for.

Signed: Nick Cruse, President Triabunna Football Club.

Phil Giffard, Vice President, Triabunna Football Club.

Swansea Courthouse

A big thank you from the interim Management Committee to Councillor Britt Steiner and Deputy Mayor Cheryl Arnol for proposing their Notice of Motion (item 8.1) about the future of the Old Swansea Courthouse at the September Council Meeting.

Thanks to Councillors Jenifer Crawford, Richard Parker, Debbie Wisby and Jenny Woods for ensuring that a new Management Committee will have until 30 December 2021 to successfully implement their business plan for the conservation and reuse of the building.

The vision for the Courthouse is that it will be retained as a community asset through its continuing use and restoration of the building's heritage values. A public meeting is being considered to update the community on Council's resolutions, the draft business plan and to elect a new Management Committee.

Your on going interest in the future of Australia's oldest rural municipal building is appreciated.

Quotes of the Week

When men exercise their reason coolly and freely on a variety of distinct questions, they inevitably fall into different opinions on some of them. When they are governed by a common passion, their opinions, if they are to be called, will be the same. Alexander Hamilton (1755 - 1804)

It is not advisable, James, to venture unsolicited opinions. You should spare yourself the embarrassing discovery of their exact value to your listener.
Ayn Rand (1905 - 1982), Atlas Shrugged, 1957

Every man has a right to his opinion, but no man has a right to be wrong in his facts. Bernard M. Baruch (1870 - 1965)

I think we ought always to entertain our opinions with some measure of doubt. I shouldn't wish people dogmatically to believe any philosophy, not even mine. Bertrand Russell (1872 - 1970)

The opinions that are held with passion are always those for which no good ground exists; indeed the passion is the measure of the holder's lack of rational conviction. Opinions in politics and religion are almost always held passionately.
Bertrand Russell (1872 - 1970), Sceptical Essays, 1961

I'm not sure I want popular opinion on my side -- I've noticed those with the most opinions often have the fewest facts. Bethania McKenstry

Fight for your opinions, but do not believe that they contain the whole truth, or the only truth. Charles A. Dana (1819 - 1897)

The recipe for perpetual ignorance is: be satisfied with your opinions and content with your knowledge. Elbert Hubbard (1856 - 1915)

The moment we begin to fear the opinions of others and hesitate to tell the truth that is in us, and from motives of policy are silent when we should speak, the divine floods of light and life no longer flow into our souls. Elizabeth Cady Stanton (1815 - 1902), 1890

There is probably an element of malice in our readiness to overestimate people - we are, as it were, laying up for ourselves the pleasure of later cutting them down to size.
Eric Hoffer (1902 - 1983), The New York Times Magazine, April 25, 1971

Opinions founded on prejudice are always sustained with the greatest of violence. Francis Jeffrey (1773 - 1850)
It is hard enough to remember my opinions, without also remembering my reasons for them! Friedrich Nietzsche (1844 - 1900)

PRESIDENT'S REPORT 2017

As we continue to strive to ensure we remain relevant in our community, I am constantly amazed by the role volunteers play, not only by being involved in the Chamber, but also across many facets of our lives. Most Chamber members work full time plus, but still manage to attend meetings and contribute ideas to improving the township for both locals and visitors alike.

The Swansea Destination Action Plan Workshop proved to be very positive with representation from varied groups across Swansea and surrounds. Hopefully we can establish a way forward to progress this plan given the interest shown to date and the value it would bring.

In looking back on last year's report I was disappointed to note that we still have the issue of lack of space for RV's although this has somewhat been alleviated with the extensions to Swansea Holiday Park. There are many from our town who have spent the winter months 'on the road north' who can vouch for the importance of having ready access to sites in town which will promote increased business and allow more time to enjoy our ideal location.

Thank you to Col again for his secretarial skills and to Noel, our treasurer and the committee.

The next twelve months should see marked changes to our landscape the Loo with View and the new boat ramp being opened, hopefully encouraging visitors to "Just Stop" in Swansea.

Swansea Football Club Presentation Night Saturday 23rd September 2017

On the Saturday evening about 50 people attended the 2017 annual dinner and presentation night of the Swansea Football Club.

The meal consisted of a three roast dinner with four vegetables cooked to perfection by Mim Oxford and served with a smile by Beth Rowland, Ronda McConnin and Tayler Grey. Dessert was a choice of Cheesecake and a chocolate mousse. The author passed on the dessert.

Between the two courses, the presentation of trophies was carried out with the President, Paul Wright, Coach Ben Sweeney and Bench Coach Shane "Wilbur" Cowan doing the honours.

The club Best and Fairest was won by the coach, Ben Sweeney and his trophy was presented by "Wilbur" at left.

The club Best and Fairest Runner up was Nic Clarke (at left). Nic also won the Leading Goalkicker and Under 21 player. His parents were on hand to help Nic carry the trophies home.

The coaches awards was won by Issac Palmer, who had a very impressive season, only missing training and games when he was away working.

The Best Backman Award was won, someone said for the ninetieth time, by Andrew "Herb" Press. This year's backline was under tremendous pressure and the young players learnt a lot from "Herb" and should next year be in a position to knock "Herb" from the position of Best Backman.

With all of the players' awards out of the way, Paul Wright called Frank Clarke, the Secretary of the club, to come forward. Frank stated that his part was an honour as he was designated to announce and present the Bendigo Bank Community award for the year. Frank then announced that the award for the 2017 year was jointly won by Mim Oxford (at left) and Meaghan Heald. (at right)

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor, It was with regret that I read of Bertrand Cadart's resignation from Glamorgan Spring Bay Council, precipitated by his medical problems.

During his time as councillor, from 2005 until 2017, including his tenure as mayor (elected in 2007 and re-elected twice until 2014) his passion for the welfare of Glamorgan Spring Bay Municipality, was like a breath of fresh air.

He put the east coast of Tassie on the map, because of his exuberant personality, French connections and consequent cultural exchanges with France and its islands; promoting increased tourism and international interest in Tasmania.

Despite recent conflict within the Council, his dedication and love of the east coast has never wavered, giving him, as a councillor, the strength to continue serving its residents.

How sad it is that, after all his contributions, some of his Council colleagues were unable to provide him with consideration, when it was needed, because of a family crisis.

I, for one (and I know there are many others) wish to thank Bertrand for his twelve years of hard work, in caring for and showcasing the Freycinet Coast.

It has been greatly appreciated and I wish him and his family all the very best! Yours sincerely, Molly Greaves

Editor's note: the nature of the illness has been redacted until a statement from Mr. Cadart. Bill Fry

Mim spoke on behalf of Meaghan and herself and thanked the club for the opportunity to help out in the canteen and bar for the year. She also thanked the other canteen and bar helpers, whom without the club would not function.

After the presentations were completed, Paul Wright thanked the players, volunteers and committee for the work throughout a long and difficult season.

The elders then retired for the evening and the young, and young at heart, kicked up their heels for the rest of the evening.
