SWANSEA GOLF CLUB EAST COAST TOURNAMENT

Nicole Hollingsworth with Hollingsworth Trophy winners Brendan Squires and Val Kemp

Weather conditions were near perfect for the East Coast Tournament conducted by Swansea Golf Club over the recent long weekend. A good number of local and visiting players supported the two day event which proved to be a great success. Locals and visitors alike enjoyed the social aspect of the event as well as the competitive part. It was pleasing to see that Swansea members were among those who featured on the winner's list.

The Men's Stroke was won by Derrick McPherson from the Claremont Club with a score of 66. Swansea's Mark Hall finished in second with a 69 on a count back from state player Paul Read. Gary Read with a round of 66 won the net competition. Debbie Taylor from the Tea Tree Club won the Women's stroke event with Sally Siepen runner up in both the gross and the net. Louise McKenna won the net with a round of 66.

Women's stroke net winner Louise McKenna with Captain Chris Howell

The Men' Canadian Foursome competition was won by Derrick McPherson and Eddie Saville with a gross score of 63. Raymond Flynn and Lucas Hall were runners up with 67. Chris Howell and Steve Kenny won the net prize carding a round of 58 with Raymond and Lucas finishing with a net 58.5 in second spot again.

The Mixed Foursomes competition, sponsored by the Hollingsworth family proved to be a runaway victory to Swansea's Val Kemp and Brendan Squires with an outstanding net score of 51. Louise McKenna and Murray Lethborg were the runners up with a net 54.5. The Mixed Gross winners were Louise and Murray with a round of 74 on a count back from Debbie Taylor and Neil Sculthorpe.

The prize presentations preceded a very enjoyable evening which included dinner catered for by the staff of the Swansea Bark Mill Tavern.

During the presentations, Captain Chris Howell thanked our highly valued sponsors for their generosity and support for the tournament. Their contribution is very much appreciated.

Peter Donaldson and Mal Sinclair were recognized and thanked for their preparation of the course which looked a picture for the event despite the pin placement on the sixth green which caused some grief for a number of players. Special thank you to Bruce Digney for his contribution behind the scenes and to Tim Bond for his personal support and organization.

Swansea Online Access Centre

Please note that as from 1st July 2017, SOAC will be reintroducing a membership fee of $5 per annum, which will allow free access to the centre's computers. A gold coin donation will be requested from all non-members who use the facilities.

Although the costs of running the centre have increased, there has been no increase in the funds allocated to the centre from the Govt. and there is no increase in funding before July 2019.

Also on the first of July the fees for using the centre's facilities will increase for the first time in at least five years, although member prices will remain as they have been since at least 2013.

The World of Music comes to Swansea

On Sunday the 4th of June the Kettering Piano Quartet, with some of the finest musicians from the Tasmanian Symphony Orchestra, came to Swansea thanks to the generosity of Jennifer and David Lathwell.

Their rendition of the Saint Saens and Faure Piano Quartets was certainly world class, and would have graced any concert platform world wide. The atmosphere created by this venue and the proximity of the players (I was only 2 metres away) helped to create a feeling of being part of the music, and the acoustics were faultless.

That we are able to enjoy music of this quality in a country town the size of Swansea is thanks to Jennifer and David and many others who continue to be active in our community.

We all look forward to attracting a continuation of the wonderful talents available in our beautiful state of Tasmania
Geoff Whitton

On the 4th of June there was a full house at Kennedia for the Kettering Piano Quartet concert. Among the audience were some who had never attended a classical music event before, and they declared that they were bowled over by the experience and want to hear more!

It was a wonderful concert with the already high standard of the quartet raised even higher by the exceptional beauty of the violin playing of Emma McGrath, the concertmaster of the Tasmanian Symphony Orchestra, who has recently joined the quartet.

The musicianship of all four players, and the energy and commitment they invested in both the Saint Saens quartet and the Gabriel Faure quartet meant that we were treated to an inspiring and uplifting afternoon.

The only regret is that the studio at Kennedia holds such a limited number of seats (which makes booking for concerts essential!) but we are so fortunate that such superb musicians are willing to travel here for our little concerts.

French sparkling, tea, coffee and all sorts of goodies were shared with the musicians after the concert. Thanks to all those who brought food to share

Swansea Golf Club News Golf Report

17th June 2017

Julie Dart with competition winner John McKenna

The weather gods have smiled on the golfing fraternity for quite some time and last Saturday was no exception.

Twenty six members turned out for a Stableford competition sponsored by the Swansea Craft Group. After a very long drought, John McKenna won the event with a very healthy score of 46 points. Runner up was Val Kemp with a score of 40 on a count back from Captain Chris Howell. Next best scores were recorded by Darrel Down 39, Alvin Douglas 38 and Chris Weeding 36.

The craft group who use the club rooms for their activities generously sponsored the day and supplied a magnificent afternoon tea which was very much appreciated by the members.

RESULTS :

J. McKenna 46; V. Kemp, C. Howell 40; D. Down 39; A. Douglas 38; C. Weeding 36; M. Lethborg, I. Johnson 35, M. Hall, S. Dart 34; K. Wadley, R. Dart, F. Dowling, S. Kenny 33; M. Sinclair, M. Gall 31; S. Siepen, B. Squires 30; J. Quinn 29; P. Donaldson, L. McKenna, J. Miley, P. Lea, R. Bennett 28; E. Broderick 27.

Nearest to the pin winners were Steve Kenny 7th/16th Elton Broderick scored wins on 4th/13th and the 8th/17th.
